

RAM

(Verse 1)

Neon grids and concrete veins,
The mortgage clock, the heavy chains.
Running blind on a broken thread,
Corrupted shadows in the head.
Burnout hums in the silent night,
Chasing ghosts in a borrowed light.

(Pre-Chorus)

Error 404: the soul is locked,
The old system falls, the pipeline's blocked.
Time to drop the weight, and switch to the brand new RAM,
Slovexit is here—we break the losing scam.

(Chorus)

RAM. Online. Pure and bright.
The heavenly kingdom within, the temple of light.
No more noise, no more glitch,
We cross the zero, we make the switch.
True expression, new dawn's decree,
The new RAM is here, and the system is free.

(Verse 2)

Relations healing, the pressure fades,
No more masks, no more silent shades.
I bring the code, I launch the pure design,
A brand new RAM so human souls can shine.
The core processor breathes at last,
Deleting errors of the past.

(Chorus)

RAM. Online. Pure and bright.

The heavenly kingdom within, the temple of light.

No more noise, no more glitch,

We cross the zero, we make the switch.

True expression, new dawn's decree,

The new RAM is here, and the system is free.

(Outro)

Clean data.

Pure light.

New RAM.

Active.

Now.
