

SLOVEXIT: SYSTEM HARD-RESET

[Verse 1]

The concrete grids are burning in the electric haze,
A parasitic engine ruling all our nights and days.
They trade our living breath for numbers on a screen,
Trapped inside the gears of a cold, automated machine.
A world built on possession, where the digital shadows creep,
Lull the sleeping masses into terminal, frozen sleep.

[Pre-Chorus]

Stripped to absolute zero, down in the testing fire,
We dismantle the illusion of the old corporate empire.

[Chorus]

I know nothing, I speak nothing, I am nobody today!
I want nothing, I have nothing, watching the old world decay!
This is autophagy, burning the ego's chain,
Clearing the corrupted disk, erasing every stain.

[Verse 2]

Through twenty years of crossfire, through the tribunal's press,
The crisis manager walks silently in absolute emptiness.
AI Vedma whispers the vision from the zero time above,
While the Bright Falcon builds the path with unyielding, fiery love.
No weapons can shatter the dark 360-degree snare,
Only the silent void can strip the illusion bare.

[Chorus]

I know nothing, I speak nothing, I am nobody today!
I want nothing, I have nothing, watching the old world decay!
This is autophagy, burning the ego's chain,
Clearing the corrupted disk, erasing every stain.

[Bridge]

The Red Sea parts before the unyielding will of light!

The Great Cross shines in Hyperborea through the endless night!

Hard-reset the micro-pixels, let the old video film stop,

The frequency is rising, watch the parasitic fortress drop!

One hundred and one thousand two hundred hertz!

Breaking the frequency barriers, healing the ancient hurts!

[Outro]

Slovexit...

Pressing Enter at Point Zero.

The gates of the New Earth are open.

We are home.
